RESEARCHING EL PASO & BORDERLAND TOPICS

Reference Material

Available Titles:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Call Number</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Historic El Paso</td>
<td>REF F394 .E4F 58 2004</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>It's An El Paso Thing</td>
<td>REF F394 .E4 I87 2005</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Online Catalog

- Do a subject search for “EL PASO” and look at all the narrower topics listed in blue. These keywords might help if you are trying to pick a topic.
- Do a keyword search for “EL PASO” and your topic. For example: EL PASO HEALTH

Online Databases

- Ebsco Databases Find magazine, newspaper, and journal articles AND eBooks. Includes the Texas Reference Center and about 50 other databases.
- Galenet/Info Trac Collections Search 40 article databases.
- Handbook of Texas Online More than 27,000 encyclopedic entries on the influential people, eras, and events of Texas history
- El Paso Times Newspaper Newspaper/Current Events from 1999 to the present

Open Web

  Articles written by EPCC students about El Paso, Cd. Juárez, Las Cruces border region as well as tips and links that will help you to research any Borderlands related topic.

Other Area Libraries

- Border Heritage Center, Downtown Public Library 501 N. Oregon, (915)212-0355
  Books, newspaper clippings, photos, and more. There is also an index to El Paso newspaper articles published before the 1990’s; the articles are on microfilm.
- Special Collections, University of Texas El Paso, Library 6th floor, (915)747-5697
  Books, manuscripts, images and oral history about the history of El Paso.

Caty Valtierra-Piñón, EPCC Librarian, 01/18/18