I. REFERENCE SOURCES

American Eras
American Decades
Decades in America series
Dictionary of American History
Encyclopedia of Mexico
Encyclopedia of Native American Tribes
Encyclopedia of Rural America
Encyclopedia of the American West
Gale Encyclopedia of U.S. History
Great Events from History: North American Series
Great Events from History: The 19th Century
Great Events from History: The 20th Century
Milestone Documents in African American History
Milestone Documents in American History
Milestone Documents of American Leaders
New Handbook of Texas
Reader's Guide to American History
Oxford Encyclopedia of Mesoamerican Cultures

II. EBSCO Discovery Service

Search the EBSCO Discovery Service to find books, audio-visual materials & database articles for your research project or assignment.

Search Tip: If your results are too many, you can limit by Source Type, Publication Date, Subject, Library Location, or Database.
III. ONLINE DATABASES

(Magazine, newspaper, and journal articles: Available from home through the off-campus access links.)

History Articles/Digital Archives

American Indian Histories and Cultures (Adam Matthew)

Explore manuscripts, artwork and rare printed books dating from the earliest contact with European settlers right up to photographs and newspapers from the mid-twentieth century. Browse through a wide range of rare and original documents from treaties, speeches and diaries, to historic maps and travel journals.

American West (Adam Matthew)

The Graff Digital Collection is a unique resource which will allows users to explore the American West through a mixture of original manuscripts, maps, ephemeral material and rare printed sources. The majority of the material is unique.

Heritage Quest (ProQuest)

Includes genealogical and local history materials for tracing family lineages and American culture, beginning with the 13 original colonies. Contains information from towns and families of all 50 states as well as Canada, England, and Ireland. Search by title, family name geographic area, or subject.

History Study Center (ProQuest)

Online resource providing a vast collection of digitized primary and secondary sources for the study of history. Covers global history from ancient times to the present day.

Research in Context (Gale)

American History Subset - easy access to content based on national curriculum standards. Provides a premium selection of reference, primary sources, creative works, and multimedia, including hours of video and audio clips.

Texas Reference Center (Ebsco)

A Texas specific product comprised of periodicals, reference books, reports, and other content relevant to the state. Texas Reference Center contains more than 75 full text periodicals, 150 full text reference books, several Texas newspapers, and much more.

Texas Digital Sanborn Maps (ProQuest)

Sanborn maps are valuable historical tools for urban specialists, social historians, architects, geographers, genealogists, local historians, planners, environmentalists and anyone who wants to learn about the history, growth, and development of Texas cities, towns, and neighborhoods. Large-scale maps give street names, street and sidewalk widths, property boundaries, building use, and house and block numbers.

General & Newspaper Articles

Academic OneFile (Gale)

One-stop source for news and periodical articles on a wide range of topics. Millions of full-text articles, many with images. Updated daily.

Academic Search Complete (Ebsco)

Comprehensive scholarly, multi-disciplinary full-text database, with more than 8,500 full-text periodicals, including more than 7,300 peer-reviewed journals. Searchable cited references are provided for more than 1,400 journals.

Historical Newspapers: The New York Times 1851–2013 (ProQuest)

This historical newspaper provides online, easily-searchable first-hand accounts and unparalleled coverage of the politics, society and events of the time. This database has primary sources!