Accessing Databases

1. From EPCC homepage (www.epcc.edu), hover over Current Students section. Under Campus Resources, click on Libraries.
2. Click on Online Databases under Online Resources.
3. Use the Subject tabs to narrow your database choices. For an overview of a topic, look at the selections under General Interest.
4. Choose your database. Note: If you are using the databases away from campus, use the “Off-campus access” links next to the database titles. Then log in – Username: your first & last name as it appears on your registration; EPCC ID Number: your 8xxxxxxx number.
   If you are on campus, just click on the database title.
5. Database opens to a search page. Set the appropriate limits on your search (i.e. full text, peer-reviewed / scholarly / refereed journals, and dates).
6. You may need to use synonyms of your search terms and search in various databases.

Questions? Call (831-2442), email (askalib@epcc.edu) or stop by the VV Library (C-200).

Accessing Databases

1. From EPCC homepage (www.epcc.edu), hover over Current Students section. Under Campus Resources, click on Libraries.
2. Click on Online Databases under Online Resources.
3. Use the Subject tabs to narrow your database choices. For an overview of a topic, look at the selections under General Interest.
4. Choose your database. Note: If you are using the databases away from campus, use the “Off-campus access” links next to the database titles. Then log in – Username: your first & last name as it appears on your registration; EPCC ID Number: your 8xxxxxxx number.
   If you are on campus, just click on the database title.
5. Database opens to a search page. Set the appropriate limits on your search (i.e. full text, peer-reviewed / scholarly / refereed journals, and dates).
6. You may need to use synonyms of your search terms and search in various databases.

Questions? Call (831-2442), email (askalib@epcc.edu) or stop by the VV Library (C-200).